

REPORT ON STREET PLAY ORGANISED BY ECO CLUB IN COLLABORATION WITH IQAC AND CCSU, CHHAYGAON COLLEGE AND PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION ORGANISED BY ECO CLUB IN COLLABORATION WITH IQAC, CHHAYGAON COLLEGE ON THE OCCASION OF WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY 2025 -

A brief write-up on the program – Over fifteen students from Chhaygaon College staged a Street Play on the occasion of World Environment Day 2025 on 5th June 2025. The theme of the Street Play was “Aei Projonmo”. Through this play students portrayed nature’s struggle in the midst of growing human consumption and waste. The story was based on how human activities are adversely affecting our planet, resulting in deteriorating health of the human population. At the same time students of the college participated in a photography competition on the theme “Ending Plastic Pollution globally”. The result of the competition was announced by the Principal of Chhaygaon College on 5th June 2025 and the first three winners were awarded by him. The idea behind such activities was to promote understanding of important environmental issues so that students are aware of critical actions we need to take to protect our environment.

A few snap shots of the program:

